The members of the Garden club at their meeting Monday evening enjoyed an unusually beautiful showing of colored slides of wild flowers in their natural habitat shown by Kenneth E. Pioneer Regional High News

It does not seem possible that any other school could be as busy as our school has been the past week. The seniors returned from the Washington trip, very tired and footsore, but filled with enchanting stories of a week packed with fun and excitement. Everyone is very much indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard for planning such an educational as well as entertaining trip, and they are also very appreciative of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. John Trumbull were able to go with them on the trip. Photographs taken on the trip are being distributed to the class. A picture taken of the class in front of the nation's capitol is very interesting. The juniors are listening very attentively and quite wistfully, for their turn to go to Washington will be next and they can hardly wait to become seniors in order to go on their class trip.

Report cards were distributed last week and everyone has settled down to the business of finishing the school year in a few short weeks. We are hoping that all students will work hard and make a good record for the final marking period. Following the receipts of the report cards all parents were invited to attend open house Thursday evening at the Pioneer Valley regional school from 6:45 to 9:15. The purpose of the visiting hours was to give parents an opportunity to consult the teachers and talk over any problems which their sons and daughters may be having. Teachers are always very happy to meet parents because in this way a better understanding is created between the school and home.

Wednesday under the supervision of Robert Upham a career day program was held in the auditorium. This was the first occasion of its kind to help students make choices of the career for which they feel they have aptitudes and interests. The speaker

Miss J. A. Sliwa Weds Edward L. Makowski

Miss Joyce A. Sliwa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sliwa of Northfield, and Edward L. Makowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antoni Makowski of South Deerfield, were married at St. Patrick's church here on Saturday morning with the double ring service and nuptial high mass celebrated by Rev. Anthony Rzasa. Richard Repeta, a cousin of the bride, served the mass and lighted the altar candles. The church was decorated with white tulips and snapdragons.

William Forrest sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy" and "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. John Greene, organist.

Miss Jane S. Zewinski, Miss Sliwa's niece, was maid of honor. Joseph Interlâne, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was best man. Ushers were William H. Leno and Harry R. Gove.

For her bridal ensemble Miss Sliwa wore a floor-length gown of white rosepoint lace and imported silk taffeta. It was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline embroidered in seed pearls and iridescents fitted bodice, long lace tapered sleeves and bouffant taffeta skirt with lace appliques.

She wore a circular fingertip veil of imported silk illusion edged with lace and sequins and fastened to a cloche of heirloom lace and seed pearls. She carried white roses and white margareta in a cascade bouquet.

Miss Zewinski's gown was of ballerina-length pink taffeta, fashioned with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, brief sleeves and balloon skirt. It was worn with a horsehair tufted metallic picture hat tinted to match the skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white margareta.

A reception for the immediate families followed at the main dining room of the Bernardston Inn. In the receiving line were parents of the bride and bridegroom.

For an unannounced wedding trip, Mrs. Makowski wore a red suit with beige accessories, mink fur pieces, a gift from her husband, and a corsage of white roses. The couple will be at home, 19 Shattuck street, Greenfield, after May 10.

Mrs. Makowski attended Northfield schools and is employed as a clerk at the Turners Falls branch of the First National Bank & Trust Co. Her husband attended Deerfield schools and Northampton Commercial college. He is employed as a teller at the First National Bank & Trust Co. in Greenfield.

Mrs. Mabel E. Kelley

Mrs. Mabel E. Kelley, 66, of 57 Main street died at Brattleboro on Monday, April 28.

She was the widow of Burton A. Kelley and had been a resident of Northfield for the past six years, having formerly lived in Greenfield.

She was born in Conway, May 14 1891, the daughter of George and Catherine (Fisher) Turkey. She was a member of St. Patrick's church.

She leaves a son, Frank S. of Northfield; three daughters, Miss Lucille Kelley and Mrs. Catherine Gilbert of Northfield and Mrs. Norma Randall of Chelmsford, and seven grandchildren.

Services were held at the McCarthy funeral home in Greenfield Wednesday morning at 8:30, followed by a requiem mass at St. Patrick's church in Northfield at 9 o'clock. Burial was in Calvary cemetery in Greenfield.

Rev. Henry McKeon said the mass and read committal prayers at the grave side. Bearers were Justin Moore, Robert Graves, Frank Shea and Daniel Shea.

Mrs. Helen Stearns of Northfield and Mrs. Florence Wilde of Mount Hermon will be in Atlantic City, May 4 to 9 to attend the supreme session of the White Shrine of Jerusalem.

Gifts Galore

Schauffler library at Mt. Hermon school has received several outstanding gifts recently. Arthur Gregorian, Hermon '33, gave two beautiful oriental rugs, the one in the lobby being a Serab, about 150 years old. It has the rare design of a Christian cross and a human figure woven into it. The other rug is a Kazak about 100 years old. John Gregorian, a son of the donor, is a sophomore.

Another father who presented the library with a gift is Jay Saunders Redding, who autographed his latest book, "The Lonesome Road." This is the last publication of the Mainstream of America series. His son, Lewis Redding, was in the class of '52, and Brown Redding is Hermon '59.

The most stupendous gift was a collection of 700 books, the gift of Dr. Cassius Lopez De Victoria, Hermon '06. Dr. Victoria was the executor of a friend's estate and bought the collection for Schauffler library. Mr. Moyle of the Hermon staff went to Rye, N. Y., to pack and transport the wonderful acquisition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell T. Persons and family are moving into the Glenwood avenue house now occupied by the Wards; the house east of the Porter home. They have been living on Pinemeadow street, but have bought the new home.

Mrs. Jame Ryan and daughter, Diane, have come to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Field.

Mrs. Edgar Parker came home from Newport, R. I., for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyde left a week ago for a two week trip to the South visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Streeter have received word of the birth of a granddaughter, child of Mr. and Mrs. William Reilly of Athol, born April 18.

Progress

We read under the heading, "Northfield Fifty Years Ago," that the George Wright automobile company is planning to begin the trip from Greenfield to Northfield via Bernardston about May 1, if the roads are good. While we are celebrating this daring event on May 1, we can reflect that "good roads" in those days did not produce taxes such as we have now.

Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Walker of Worcester have spent a few days at their South Vernon farm.

Mrs. Mary Frost has returned to the home of her daughter in Alstead, N. H., following a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Blodgett. Mrs. Maria Derodell, who spent the winter in South Vernon, is also visiting her niece in Alstead before returning to Alberta, Canada.

Al/C. and Mrs. David Stacy and infant son of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Stacy.

Friday morning Mrs. G. B. Granger and Mrs. Walter Bailey of East Northfield and Mrs. Raymond Parenteau of Northfield went to the Leeds hospital in Northampton to arrange flowers for the patients there. They represent the Northfield Garden club. Monday evening in Alexander hall K. E. Myers of Greenfield spoke on "Wild Flowers in Their Natural Habitat."

Word has been received of the death of Robert Russell, 69, a frequent visitor to Northfield who once lived in the Wyman home on Birnam road. He had been a former minister of Larchmont Presbyterian church in New York, and with his wife was co-head of the Russell Ranch school in Tuscon, Ariz. His wife was the former Ellen Stuart, whose brother, Dr. Harold Stuart, married Agnes Brown, who once lived here. Among his many activities he went with a secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions to Africa where they traveled 18,000 miles, addressed 30,000 converts, took films and brought a baby gorilla back to the Bronx zoo. Surviving are his widow; two sons, James S. of Summit, N. J., and Robert M., Jr., who has gone to be the Presbyterian chaplain at Yale university. A daughter, Mrs. Malcolm Marshall, lives in Washington. Mr. Russell died in Santa Barbara.

Finest Knid of Reciprocity

The Trinitarian Congregational church, through its Pilgrim Fellowship, has reached a large number of teen-agers this year and for them has planned a variety of Sunday evening programs, trips, weekdays and Sundays, sales and the great New York weekend adventure. Help has been reciprocal, however. On Saturday, April 26, 24 boy and girls went out under the title, "The Lord's Workers" and helped with all kinds of spring chores, indoors and out, for local residents. Sunday, April 27, Jessica Walker soloed in the church anthem at the morning service when six girls took the collection. Also in this same service fourteen young people joined the church. Sunday evening the youth group turned in the money it had earned Saturday for its charity budget, during a service of dedication. This cooperation is reciprocity at its highest level.

The monthly meeting of the American Legion will be held Monday at 8 p.m.

Howard Baker of Mt. Hermon faculty spoke at the weekly luncheon of the Greenfield Kiwanis club this past week at the Weldon hotel.

Miss Fanny Stockbridge has returned from a winter spent in Florida and visits in Washington to her home on Highland avenue.

Mrs. Cortlandt Finch is with her daughter, Mrs. Erwin Flewelling, in Springfield as the latter expects to have an operation in the near future.

Mrs. Shirley Kehl will take a few days' vacation. Her welfare office will be open Wednesday and Thursday morning with Mrs. Joseph Holton in charge.

The spring party of the 20-40 club will start with a potluck supper at 7 p.m. next Friday evening in the vestry of the Trinitarian Congregational church. Members of the supper committee are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mann, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooke and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps. There will be games and round and square dancing with the caller Clinton Weymouth. Any young couples visiting members of the church over this sacred concert weekend are cordially invited to attend this party Friday night. Please notify Mrs. Frank Bordner if you plan to attend and are not a member of the club.

Dr. Nels Ferre, one of the speakers at Northfield's conference on evangelism this summer, 1958, is the brother of Mrs. Thyra Bjorn, who recently spoke to the Fortnightly and is the author of "Papa's Wife" and "Papa's Daughter."

William G. McLoughlin, Jr., assistant professor in the department of political science at Brown university, who came here in 1956 to study the D. L. Moody paper, writes that his book on America's great urban revivalists is to be published soon and will be "out" next fall.

Joint Sale

On Saturday, May 17, starting at 10 a.m. there will be two sales on the lawn of Green Pastures, home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Powell. The Girl Scouts will have a food sale, the proceeds going into their oil-furnace fund. The Scouts and executives of the organization will run this sale. At the same time Mrs. E. M. Powell, who formerly ran the Nearly-New shop in her home in 1951, will run a small but selective sale of garments. Consignors may bring their garments (clean, not faded nor patched) to the Powells by appointment any time after May 1. Already men's suits and overcoats, women's dresses, shoes and blouses and some children's clothes have been sent in. The top price for this sale is $10. As soon as the playground staff is selected, the committee and staff will turn to the procurement of equipment and supplies and detailed arrangements for the daily program.

Mrs. Marian Billings, public health nurse, has made her report for the month of April and has called attention to the prevalence of "pink eye" among the school children. Social and Personal News Notes of the Northfield Area

At about 10:30 Monday morning the local fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher on the Pine Meadow road. Fire and water damage was confined to the roof and chimney after the fire was extinguished by the three engines and 15 men who responded to the call. Damage was estimated at $500. The fire probably caused by an overheated chimney was discovered by Mrs. Fisher who was at home alone at the time.

Mrs. Mary Holton, who has sold her home on the Mount Hermon road in West Northfield to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weston of Turners Falls, is having a foundation made on an adjacent lot for her trailer where she and her two children will make their home.

Gilbert Arms, a patient at the Bronson Nursing home, observed his 81st birthday Friday. He is a charter member of the Greenfield Order of Eagles.

The following members of the Women's Guild of the Trinitarian Congregational church attended the May Fellowship day for the United Women of Franklin county on Friday in South Deerfield: Mrs. Howard Briggs, Miss Alice Munde, Miss Mabel Shields, Mrs. Birdsall, Miss Marion Holton, Mrs. Grove Denning, Miss Miriam Trowbridge, Mrs. F. H. Mosse and Mrs. George Carr.

Mrs. Charles W. Rodier of Main street is exhibiting her painted college seals and coats of arms at the Talcott library at the Northfield School for Girls until May 15. Mrs. Rodier's work has unusual beauty of detail and is well worth a special trip to the school to see.

Miss Mary Ann Repeta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Repeta, was recently elected secretary of the Massachusetts Association of Medical Technologists at the 10th annual convention in Boston. Miss Repeta is a medical technician at the Franklin County public hospital.

A 1/c Robert A. Fisher of Andrews Air Force base, Washington, D. C., has been spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fisher. Due for a discharge this summer he has signed up for an additional two years enlistment and will attend a medic school in Alabama. He enlisted in July, 1954, and has served nearly half of that time at a base hospital in Japan.

Legion Auxiliary Entertains at Leeds

A group from the Northfield American Legion auxiliary went to the Leeds Veterans hospital on Friday evening to participate in a "talent" entertainment. Taking part in the program were Marilyn Croutworst, baton twirler and soloist and Marsha Billings, Judy Rice and Michele Poneck, tap dancers. The four also sang several selections. Mrs. Elaine Williams was pianist for the group.

Auxiliary members who attended were Mrs. Lura Stone, Mrs. Mildred Addison, Mrs. Doris Bolton, Mrs. Sarah Spindler and Mrs. Pearl Allen. The auxiliaries of Colrain and Charlemont also participated in providing entertainment.

NORTHFIELD O.E.S.

Mrs. George Carr was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Northfield Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, on Wednesday evening. She compared flower gardens of Florida and Northfield with colored slides. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maynard and Mrs. Mildred Addison.

DAR Installs New Officers

Officers were elected at the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bishop on Monday afternoon. These officers named by Mrs. Albert E. Anderson and Mrs. Harold Carroll, the nominating committee, were installed by Mrs. Henry Prescott: regent, Mrs. Robert L. Wood; vice regent, Mrs. Samuel Bishop; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph W. Holton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ross L. Spencer, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. G. Lee Bolton; chaplain, Mrs. Roger M. Greenwood; registrar, Mrs. Ralph E. Sargent; librarian, Mrs. David C. Cook; historian, Mrs. Ross L. Spencer, past regent.

There were 18 members and one guest attending the meeting which opened with the special ceremony, the salute to the flag, and the singing of America, the Beautiful, accompanied at the piano by Samuel Bishop.

Mrs. Dana Lewis read from the president's general's message concerning the accomplishments of the early president of the United States, James Monroe.

The group voted to hold a picnic meeting at the D.A.R. forest in Goshen on June 16.

Miss Fannie Stockbridge, delegate to the Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., gave a most interesting report of the sessions which she attended.

The hostess, Mrs. Bishop, spoke of her recent trip with her husband to the Mediterranean countries and showed a beautiful collection of souvenirs which she brought home with her. It included a large collection of dolls from the various countries, jewelry, embroideries, china, carvings and all types of hand work.

Mrs. Bishop's story of the cruise told many interesting things about the countries visited, the life on the luxury liner, S. S. Olympia, and the side trips which they made.

The meeting was preceded by a coffee hour at which Mrs. Robert L. Wood, regent, poured.

New Trees Planted

Joseph E. Bilmon, tree warden, for the town of Northfield has completed the planting of shade trees on the town streets for which $200 was appropriated at the last annual town meeting. Norway maples have been set on the Mount Hermon road and Caldwell road in West Northfield and on North lane, Pine street and Glenwood avenue in East Northfield. A red oak was set on Moody street. Rock maples were placed on Warwick avenue, Norway maples on St. Mary's street and East street and Moraine locust on Old Ferry road.

Norway maples were planted on the Upper Farms road, Lower arms road and Cross street at Northfield Farms and Moraine locusts on the Lower Farms road. The locusts are new to folks in this area but they are a very rapid growing tree, disease resistant, with no thorns or berries and with the appearance of an elm.

Again the milk disease spores for the control of Japanese beetle grubs will be distributed beginning next week. Any persons who would like to cooperate in the program may call Mr. Bilmon.

It is planned to have two sprays of 10 per cent D.D.T. for adult Japanese beetles, the first spray on the second week in July and the second the first week in August.

Spraying for poison ivy is also planned and will be done the second week in June. All baseball diamond areas, recreation areas and swimming pools will be taken care of with one spray.

Dormant spray for bark beetles in a 12 per cent D.D.T. solution will be completed this month and the general spray of 6 per cent D.D.T. for elm leaf beetles, forest caterpillar, gypsy moth and fly control will start June 1.

Pioneer Regional High News

As usual this week has been full of activities and especially busy for the juniors who are preparing for a dance similar to those traditionally put on each year in the past by local high schools.

Tomorrow evening the first junior prom to take place at the Pioneer Valley regional school gymnasium will be held. This is to be a semi-formal affair open to the public as well as to students and teachers. Tickets will be on sale at the door and spectator tickets will be sold.

There will be a special dance for junior girls and their escorts only, so that a queen may be chosen by impartial judges. The queen's court will consist of junior girls.

Music will be supplied by the Silver Diamonds orchestra. The theme of the dance is Sayonara theme of the dance is Sayonara.

On May 1 last Thursday night, open house was held at the school from 6:45 until 9:30 p.m. There were over one hundred parents who attended. The teachers had sent home letters inviting the parents of certain students to come so that they could talk over their children's marks with them. Also many parents came voluntarily because they were interested in talking to the teachers and were equally welcomed. The teachers felt that the evening was very worthwhile and hope that the parents did too.

About 300 townspeople were served a delicious supper last Saturday evening by the Pioneer teachers and their husbands and wives. The proceeds from this supper will be added to the scholarship fund. From this fund a scholarship will be awarded to one member of the senior class who plans to obtain further schooling after graduation.

Last Monday during activity

period, all grades held class meetings for the purpose of electing student council representatives. The following people were selected from each class: seniors, John Thayer, Cora Hurlburt, Judy Shipa and Stephanie Horton; juniors, Lee Kemp, Betty Ware and Dorothy Given; sophomores, Linda Streeter and Raymond Glabach; freshmen, Robert Barnes and Marsha Billings; eighth grade, Joan Streeter and Ronald Jordan; seventh grade, Henry Prescott and Nancy Ostrowski.

The seventh grade also elected class officers at this time: president, John Fallon; vice president, David Sargent; secretary, Gail Whitney; treasurer, Gloria Barrett.

Tuesday among the most surprised people in the world was Roland Emery, one of the science teachers. May 6 was his birthday and although he thought it was a deep dark secret some of the inquisitive seventh graders found out about it. Fifteen of them got their heads together and arranged for a cake decorated with red, white and blue frosting as well as some soda pop and gifts to be smuggled into school. This surprise party was greatly enjoyed by the participants at the close of school.

This afternoon the girls' softball team will play its first game at the old high school in Northfield against Amherst. The girls have been practicing for about two weeks, but rain has held them up somewhat lately. Tuesday afternoon the girls went to Northfield to practice on the softball diamond there.

The boys' baseball team is doing a fine job, having won two games and lost only one so far. Unfortunately their game with Williamsburg, scheduled for yesterday afternoon, has been postponed indefinitely because of the weather.

This afternoon from 12:10 to 1 o'clock all students will attend an assembly at which our band will play some of the numbers presented at the recent band concert. Also some of the feature performances of the concert will be re-enacted.
